PRESS RELEASE

York, PA – On December 12, 2017, York County Drug Task Force officers observed Dysheem Jones, age 21, sitting in a vehicle which was parked near the intersection of N. Sherman St. and E. Clarke Ave. in York City. Jones was known to the officers and was known to have active warrants for his arrest. Furthermore, Drug Task Force officers were aware that the U.S. Marshal's Fugitive Task Force was actively searching for Jones. As Drug Task Force officers approached Jones, he fled on foot and was taken into custody a short distance away. At the time Jones was taken into custody he was found to be in possession of a Glock 40 caliber handgun and $3300 cash.

A subsequent search of the vehicle from which Jones fled from produced approximately 50 grams of heroin, codeine syrup and drug packaging paraphernalia.

Jones was charged with Possession with the Intent to Deliver Heroin, firearms offenses and drug possession charges. Bail was set at $150,000. He was committed to the York County Prison in lieu of bail and the outstanding warrants.

Dysheem Jones

Criminal charges, and any discussion thereof, are merely allegations and all defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
