Former York Suburban Superintendent Charged

York, PA – District Attorney Tom Kearney and District Attorney’s Office Detective Paul Pelaia announce the filing of two (2) counts of criminal mischief this afternoon against former York Suburban Superintendent Michelle Merkle.

Merkle was observed on video on multiple occasions causing damage to vehicles owned by the victim Patricia Maloney. Each of these incidents occurred while on school property. “After a thorough review of the evidence, witness interviews and a review of the law, I determined criminal charges were warranted in this matter”, said District Attorney Tom Kearney.

Criminal charges, and any discussion thereof, are merely allegations and all defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
